Hi Neil,

Thanks for send Chris and John's comments. I will address them in my current version.

As for STICS, the NBP2 manuscript is already submitted. The submittal of the manuscript to STICS triggered John and Chris's review. I think this means it is now on Ronnie's desk and we are in a waiting period.

Thanks,
Johnsie

Hi Johnsie,

With regards to the stamps and coins – you paid a fair price – they’re not rare, but they’re well done and pretty folders.

I have attached a .pdf of the PFESA-BP2 paper with Chris Lau’s and John Rogers’ comments. Both of them are excellent reviewers so you might want to look through the .pdf and make any changes that are needed. If you need the original, I’ll mail it to you – I just thought that this was a bit quicker. Hwa is currently writing a few lines to possibly be added in the Discussion.

Is can be added to STICS and I’ll ask Drew to help me get that done, or perhaps Hwa can take a crack at it.

Cheers,

Neil

Hi Neil,

I also found this binder with coins and stamps. I paid $10 for it but it has 6 pages of coins.

Thanks,

Johnsie
